Failure of States to implement Antyodaya Anna Yojana

4155. SHRI ABANI ROY: Will the Minister of CONSUMER AFFAIRS. FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item captioned "States fail to implement Antyodya Yojana Scheme" as reported in the 'Indian Express' dated the 27th July, 2001;

(b) if so, whether several States have urged the Central Government to bear the transportation and distribution costs for the supply of foodgrains under the scheme; and

(b) if so, the reaction of the Central Government in this regard ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CONSUMER AFFAIRS, FOOD AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI SHRIRAM CHAUHAN): (a) Yes Sir. The newspaper report on 'States fail to implement Antyodaya Anna Yojana' gives the position of implementation of Antyodaya Anna Yojana (AAY) in the States of Arunachal Pradesh, Manipur, Nagaland, Tripura, Assam, Jammu and Kashmir, Delhi, Meghalaya, Gujarat, Haryana, Maharashtra and Andaman and Nicobar Islands. The Antyodaya Anna Yojana has so far been implemented in 15 States and 3 Union Territories.

(b) and (c). Some State Governments have raised the issue regarding the burden an account of additional expenses towards transportation and dealers margins in respect of foodgrains distributed under Antyodaya Anna Yojana (AAY). The Government of India is already reimbursing road transport cost on actual basis for lifting of foodgrains from the base depots of FCI to the designated PDCs under the Hill Transport Subsidy (HTS) scheme for BPL foodgrains to the North-Eastern States and hilly States. This will also be applicable for foodgrains lifted under AAY for Antyodaya beneficiaries.

Flexibility has been given to the State Governments/UT Administrations in the matter of fixing the margin for the fair price shops by removing the restriction that the difference between the Central Issue Price (CEP) and Retail Issue Price (RIP) should be within 50 paise per kg. for distribution of foodgrains to BPL families under TPDS. However, the States/UTs have been requested to retain the end retail price for Antodaya beneficiaries at Rs. 2 a kg. for wheat and Rs. 3 a kg. for rice.
